Paragliding in the Val d'Anniviers

Because of the quality of the location and its winds, the Val d'Anniviers is the ideal place to sample the delights of paragliding. Whether you are planning your maiden flight in a tandem paraglider with an experienced pilot, want to learn to fly a paraglider yourself or take a variety of courses, our paragliding schools and licensed pilots will be delighted to help you discover this exhilarating sport.

Vercofly

The Vercofly is a sporting challenge that consists of linking up nine mountain huts in Valais by walking and paragliding. It is an event intended for experienced pilots and athletes, more detail on the event's official site

Fly Bétrisey Reine Cup

A paragliding and delta meeting and Swiss championship in speed flying. An event during which real demonstration of flying with great finesse is required. Touch & go, navigating around gates and other crazy stunts : an event not to be missed.
